Role of the Commission

The primary function of the Saskatchewan Police Commission as outlined in The Police Act, 1990, section 19, is to promote adequate and effective policing throughout the province and the preservation of peace, prevention of crime, efficiency of police service and the improvement of police relationships with Saskatchewan communities.

Section 12 authorizes the Commission to make regulations on various matters that will upgrade police services generally through training and standardization.

The Commission may conduct audits and reviews as well as provide information to Boards of Police Commissioners.

The Commission, as an appellate body, may review the suspension from duty of a police member or chief of police. The Commission also may hear appeals of a decision of a hearing officer.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police

On January 1, 1999, the Government of Saskatchewan implemented a new RCMP Police Cost Redistribution Program for communities with less than 5,000 in population using RCMP services.

The plan was recommended to Government by a task force consisting of municipal and urban officials from the Saskatchewan Association of Rural Municipalities (SARM), the Saskatchewan Urban Municipalities Association (SUMA) and a representative from Saskatchewan Justice.

Municipalities participating in the program pay a per capita fee for policing services received from the RCMP. The rates are revised on an annual basis by the Ministry in consultation with the two municipal organizations. In 2010, the rates charged to urban and rural communities were: $52.45 per capita for communities with detachments and $32.45 per capita for communities without detachments and all rural municipalities.

The province recovered approximately $13.3 million in revenue through the RCMP Cost Redistribution Program in 2010 - 2011.

Municipal Contracts

Pursuant to The Police Act, 1990, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police may be contracted through a Municipal Police Service Agreement (MPSA) between the municipality and the federal government to provide municipal policing to municipalities with a population less than 20,000.

In Saskatchewan, the following seven cities have MPSAs for the use of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to provide municipal policing:

- Swift Current
- Yorkton
- North Battleford
- Lloydminster
- Melfort

- Humboldt
- Martensville

* Includes Special Warrants funding for recruit training.

The Commission, in response to its changed mandate brought on by changes to The Police Act, 1990, continues to place emphasis on training. To this end, the Saskatchewan Police College continues to deliver training at the highest level.

The Commission continues its focus on public complaints and matters of internal discipline, through monitoring of complaints, appointment of Hearing Officers, conducting reviews, and hearing appeals as well as the creation of Regulations pursuant to The Police Act, 1990.

Saskatchewan Police College

Police Training

The Saskatchewan Police College, with offices and classrooms located at the University of Regina, is under the authority and control of the Saskatchewan Police Commission by virtue of The Police Act, 1990.

The mission of the Saskatchewan Police College is to collaborate with Saskatchewan municipal police agencies and their membership to provide:

- Basic recruit training;
- Ongoing in-service training and education;
- Specialized investigative techniques; and
- Ongoing evaluation of current trends and technology which impact police responses.

The Saskatchewan Police College Advisory Board consisting of Chiefs and/or Deputy Chiefs of the contributing police services and has provided on-going advice and direction to the Police College over the past year.

Recruit Training

Recruit Training involves 18 weeks at the Saskatchewan Police College followed by four to six months of practical field training with a selected field training officer. Most police services also provide one to two weeks of selective training pertinent to their agencies when the Recruits return from the College.

Recruit Training Class #60 was held from January 11, 2010, to May 14, 2010, with an enrollment of 40 police officers: 16 from Saskatoon Police Service; 18 from Regina Police Service; 4 from Prince Albert Police Service; and 2 from Estevan Police Service.

Recruit Class #61 was held from August 9, 2010, to December 10, 2010, with an enrollment of 12 police officers: 7 from Regina Police Service; 3 from Moose Jaw Police Service; 1 from Estevan Police Service; and 1 from File Hills Police Service.

Meetings

The Saskatchewan Police Commission held one regular meeting, and dealt with numerous issues via email in 2010 - 2011.

The Commission is mandated through legislation to operate the Saskatchewan Police College. In discharging its mandate, the Commission is responsible for promoting efficiency, improving police relations in the community and regularly consults with municipal Boards of Police Commissioners, the Saskatchewan Association of Chiefs of Police (SACP) and the Saskatchewan Federation of Police Officers. The Commission places considerable emphasis on race relations and cross-cultural training. The changing demographics of Saskatchewan's population requires that police services ensure their membership is representative of the general population they police.

In Saskatchewan, the challenge is to have a greater representation of Aboriginal police officers at all levels and roles in policing. To this end the Commission will continue to be involved in the development of strategies to recruit and retain Aboriginal police officers in the province.

Visits

The Director of the Saskatchewan Police Commission and the Director of the Saskatchewan Police College continue to make on-site visits with police services and non-government agencies around the province. Ongoing liaison with municipal Boards of Police Commissioners, the SACP, the Saskatchewan Federation of Police Officers, members of the public and other federal and provincial colleagues enables the Commission to be aware of emerging issues, trends and challenges of contemporary policing.

Appeals to the Commission

There were no appeals heard by the Commission during this period.

In an effort to align itself with other Canadian police agencies, the Saskatchewan Police College (SkPC) has adopted the course topic terminology as developed by the (Canadian) Police Sector Council, of which the SkPC is an active member.

Topics taught for Recruit Classes #60 and #61 for the year 2010 were:

Apply Relevant Legislation, Policies and Procedures:	148.00 hours
Use Police Equipment and Technology:	23.00 hours
Maintain Safety of Self and Others:	25.00 hours
Conduct General Patrol:	60.00 hours
Respond to Calls for Service:	63.00 hours
Assist Victims of Crime:	12.00 hours
Conduct Investigations:	70.00 hours
Prepare Policing Reports:	60.00 hours
Deliver Court Testimony:	4.00 hours
Miscellaneous Hours:	80.00 hours
Total Hours of Instruction (86 training days x 7.5 hrs)	645.00 hours
